POWER RANKINGS

A weekly performance index blending score, winning margin, lineup efficiency, and all-play record. It rewards how well a team played, not just whether it escaped 1–0.

1

Powell

10–1 all-play · 88% efficiency

A 44.34-point win. Impressive, although the opponent offered roughly the resistance of an unlocked gate.

INDEX

89

2

Tee

11–0 all-play · 69% efficiency

Top score, but only 69% lineup efficiency. Brilliant result, untidy management.

INDEX

82

3

Cup

9–2 all-play · 86% efficiency

A 44.75-point win. Impressive, although the opponent offered roughly the resistance of an unlocked gate.

INDEX

82

4

Tucker

8–3 all-play · 92% efficiency

Banked the win without frightening the league. Efficient enough, memorable only to the standings table.

78

5

Danny

7–4 all-play · 79% efficiency

Banked the win without frightening the league. Efficient enough, memorable only to the standings table.

64

6

YS

6–5 all-play · 79% efficiency

Banked the win without frightening the league. Efficient enough, memorable only to the standings table.

INDEX

55

7

Dewi

5–6 all-play · 78% efficiency

A respectable score converted into absolutely nothing. Good process, terrible reward, no sympathy.

INDEX

45

8

Rhys

3–8 all-play · 87% efficiency

Lost by 44.75. This stopped being a matchup and became evidence.

INDEX

35

9		Griff 4–7 all-play · 76% efficiency Lost by 44.34. This stopped being a matchup and became evidence.	INDEX 31
10		Connor 2–9 all-play · 71% efficiency 37.96 bench points and 71% efficiency. A tactical masterclass in watching points from the sideline.	INDEX 20
11		Brad 1–10 all-play · 68% efficiency 44.20 bench points and 68% efficiency. A tactical masterclass in watching points from the sideline.	INDEX 13
12		Weave 0–11 all-play · 76% efficiency 92.90 points and dead last in scoring. The lineup submitted a formal request for competent supervision.	INDEX 7

Power Index (0–100): 45% PF (your final weekly score) · 20% winning margin · 20% lineup efficiency · 15% all-play record. Arrows show movement from last week.
